Class of 2013 Project Graduation John Marshall High School

Project Graduation is a drug and alcohol-free program offered by many high schools in the United States. This night promotes a safe environment for all John Marshall graduates. It is an all night social event following graduation that promises to be packed with fun, food, prizes, activities and entertainment for a night of memories that will last a lifetime! Project Graduation is sponsored by parents of the Class of 2013 and is independent of, but supported by Marshall High School Faculty, Staff, and Administration.
